

Honour and Originality Declaration

International Conference on Law in Business of Selected Member States of the European Union 2020

Title of the paper: _____

Author(s): _____

The author (authors) hereby declare(s) that the submitted paper was not published before. The author (authors) undertake(s) that the paper is original and does not interfere with the copyright, proprietary or personal rights of a third party and is by scientific and publishing ethics. No part of the paper is taken from other author's work without giving proper citation. All references have been cited. The author (authors) declare(s) that in the case of the paper submitted there is no conflict of interest.

The author (authors) declare(s) that in the case of the submitted paper for publication, there is no phenomenon of "ghost-writing, guest authorship, and honorary authorship". The author (authors) declare(s) that the phenomenon of ghost writing, guest authorship, honorary authorship are the sign of scientific misconduct, and any cases detected by the conference organiser and proceedings publisher will be disclosed, including notifying the relevant institutions (institutions employing the authors).

The author (authors) declare(s) full responsibility for the language quality of the paper and is aware of the fact that the conference organiser and proceedings publisher does not assume any responsibility for its language form. The paper corresponds to requirements that meet the level of English-written science.

The author (authors) understand(s) that infringement of this declaration leads to the exclusion of the paper from the review process by the conference organiser.

Name, Surname, Title: _____

University, Institute or Faculty, Department: _____

Address (Street No, City, ZIP code): _____

Country: _____

Date and place of signature(s):

.....
Signature(s)